South African Embassy Tourism Newsletter – April 2019

Our focus for this edition is on BTL and the four tour operators that regularly partner up with the Embassy at the largest tourism event in Portugal. The newsletter is dedicated to these four companies, an important part of the South African stand for the five days of the show, and who are actively promoting and selling destination South Africa in Portugal. See who they are below (in alphabetical order).

ASCOT TOURS

This month let Ascot Elit take you on an unforgettable trip to KwaZulu Natal. You can enjoy the majesty of the bush game viewing & exploring the scenic beauty of the East Coast beaches and African Zulu culture. Some exceptional diving experiences, exclusive rhino tracking, whale watching or turtle nesting are only but a few of the great activities offered in this beautiful part of the world.

FESTIVALS AND EVENTS: April 2019

TWO OCEANS MARATHON

When: 20 April 2019

Where: Cape Town, Western Cape

More information: www.twooceansmarathon.org.za/

Africa's biggest running event and the world's most beautiful marathon. Eager athletes flock to Cape Town to embark on a 56 kilometre ultra-marathon or a 21.1 km half marathon run over road and mountain climbs while being enthralled by the mesmerising views over the ocean. A motivating and equally attractive feature of the route is, as the name implies, that it takes runners past both the Indian and Atlantic Oceans

KGALAGADI JAZZ FESTIVAL

When: 20 April 2019

Where: Kuruman, Northern Cape

More information: www.kgalagadijazzfestival.co.za/

Kgalagadi Jazz Festival hosts the 4th instalment of a great musical experience this Easter in the "The Oasis of the Kalahari" Kuruman, on the 20th of April 2019. This is a unique and exciting jazz brand which is highly patronized by both the young and old audience.
